CONSENT for SERVICE

I acknowledge and understand that Raincoast Elemental Wellness and Consulting Inc. provides holistic sessions for the purpose of enhancing relaxation. These sessions are complementary to, and do not replace, the treatment and/or therapy prescribed by a licensed medical professional.

I acknowledge and understand when the physical body begins to relax, the by-products of stress begin to be released. As we are all unique individuals, this release can be felt in many different ways. During a release, sensations or emotions are often felt. Common sensations can include but are not exclusive to feeling cold or hot, energized or mellow, nauseous, and in some cases nothing at all. Emotions can include but are not exclusive to sadness, anger, frustration, or impatience.

I acknowledge and understand at the end of the session and for the next few days, I need to increase my water intake as water is required to both break down and to flush the by-products of stress.
